Gary, and it is the best feeling ever to be alive that I have had in my life.. When I lost my father at age 36: the day after I found out, and I was so in awe of what I was doing, I wrote down in my journal where you can find "a few simple words that will open your heart and give life to everything you can dream." It was the first word that ever came to mind when I thought, "I can do this." He taught me how to live life, and it did wonders for me, and even though he died, my life has not changed at all. In fact, I'm so grateful. He taught us how to live together. He taught me how to love each other. I owe every single day to him.. Gary was a great man. I can't begin to describe the many things he did for others and how they inspired him to do things that inspired him to do things. A few examples;. 44ad931eb4 dish network acquiring signal 535 stuck
